SCLAA (WA) is proud to announce the launch of the Young Professional Program. This initiative aims to support young professionals within the supply chain and logistics discipline and their career development.

Representatives from recruitment company IPA and the Chamber of Commerce and Industry will provide an overview on recruitment and training options available for young professionals working in the supply chain area.

Jim Kelly from AWH Logistics will share his experiences and professional development journey. Jim began his career as a forklift operator and has since developed his career to include senior management positions with Mayne Logistics, Linfox Logistics, P & O and Australian Wool Handlers. Ongoing education and professional development has been an important component in the progression of Jim's career.

Colin Hedderwick was the winner of the prestigious 2009 Transport and Logistics Young Professional of The Year Award. Colin will talk about the impact of winning this award and the relevance that professional development has had for him.

Join us for some food, drink and interesting insights which will be relevant to your career. This event is open to all ages.
